

“Soccer or Football?”

By: Eduardo Niehues, Schoolcraft College

<https://schoolcraftconnection.com/45064/opinion/soccer-or-football/>

Judge’s comments: “Well-written column while using an opportunity to provide a sports history lesson. The linguistic battle has been fought continuously and this column does an exceptional job of explaining why it will always be soccer to some people and football to others. It also proves the point of why diversity of thought is important and why people have different meanings. But the overall point remains the same. It is still a sport to be cherished regardless of background. Excellent work.”